

Final Year Design Project Rules and Regulations

Department of Electrical Engineering,
Faculty of Engineering & Technology,
Gomal University, D.I.Khan.

- 1) MSc supervisor with less than three year experience can supervise two projects.
- 2) PhD supervisor can supervise four projects and co-supervise four projects at most.
- 3) There can be three or four students in a group.
- 4) There should be at least one student with CGPA above 3.00 in a group.
- 5) There should be at least one student with CGPA equal to or less than 2.50 in a group.
- 6) All the documentation of final year project should be done in Latex.
- 7) There will four presentation.
- 8) Incomplete project will affect the final grade.
- 9) Strictly follow the FYDP templates.
- 10) Final report must be well written and thoroughly read and approved by supervisor.
- 11) Plagiarism allowed level is 30% in documentation, failure to fulfill these conditions will result in drop of FYDP project.
- 12) FYDP committee has the authority to revise the rules as per situation without any prior notice.
- 13) Hardware/software should be self-designed and implemented.
- 14) All the components of the FYDP will be the ownership of the Department.